

8th Grade Physical Science

10-26-09 Notes

Summary

- physical changes can be reversed somewhat easily, but chemical changes can only be reversed with another chemical change
- Example:
 - o the physical change of sugar dissolving in water: evaporate the water and the sugar will be left behind
 - o photosynthesis (a chemical change) can only be reversed with cellular respiration (a chemical change)